UPDATE

The links in these e-mail Updates and Extras are now directly to the posts under which you can confirm for the Monday FAFI game, the mid-week routine sessions, the weekend game/session or other OPSAGE (instead of to the Routine Schedule or OPSAGE pages, as it used to be).

You can still find a listing of the sessions/games under the Routine Schedule or OPSAGE pages, and follow the link from there.

The line ups for tonight's FAFI 5-a-side game at Turf City is on the blog. Game starts at 9 pm.

Two more players to make 6-a-side.

UEFA Champions League Final pre-match session, and drinks. To be finalized:

- Midnight (Wednesday morning) to 1 am (Thursday morning) or 1 to 2 am (Thursday morning)?
- Turf City or The Cage?
- Food and drinks at The Cage or at nearby pub? If you're suggesting a nearby pub, please check it is showing the game.

Everyone playing, please state your preferences.

[contd]

Poh Keng, Bret, are you confirmed for the session? If so, we're up to 8. 2 more places available.

For the session, I suggest that everyone who is playing state whether they are backing Manchester United or Barcelona. If numbers are even, then the session can be between those backing Manchester United against those backing Barcelona. Let your football do the talking. 😊

Everyone else is free to join in to watch the Final.

The routine session system and rules have been summarized into single posts, and the Routine Schedule page has been simplified.

From this week onwards, the posts scheduling sessions will be put up as follows:

- The schedule for the weekend session(s) will go up on Wednesday.
- The post for the following week's routine mid-week sessions (Tuesday to Thursday) will go up on Friday.

The post scheduling the following week's FAFI game on Monday night will go up sometime in between the two, on Wednesday or Thursday.

Mid-week routine sessions:

- 5 places left for Tuesday night at The Cage.
- 12 confirmed for Thursday night at The Cage. If anyone confirmed for Thursday can switch to tonight's FAFI game, Tuesday night or Wednesday's pre-UEFA Champions League Final session, please do.

A general OPSAGE post will be put up fortnightly or weekly instead of monthly as was previously the case.

Feel free to propose, organize or offer any other project, sport, activity, games and events.

"OPSAGE" can also stand for "Old People, Stay Active, Get Exercise". 😊

Last week's player poll results and latest rankings on Sunday's "FIOFAFI This Week".

Football, rugby union, Formula One, cricket, tennis and basketball on "Seven Days", on Friday and today. Highlights include Leinster winning the Heineken Cup, Wolfsburg winning their first title, Rangers winning their 52nd, and Gillingham and Scunthorpe United promoted.
