TOSS

There was no "Heads" on Monday or Tuesday, and there is unlikely to be a "Tails" on Thursday or Friday. Instead, today (Wednesday) we have the first-ever "Toss" - between "Heads" and "Tails".

As there is unlikely to be a "Tails" this week, don't forget to look out for next week's mid-week schedule, which will be out on the blog by the end of tomorrow.

The blog is the place to discuss all matters relating to our sessions:

- 4 or 5-a-side at The Cage?
- Playing to the side-lines at Sports Planet?
- The rules and principles we play to, bearing in mind we don't have referees.

An extra 8-a-side session on Sunday at Turf City. Lots of places left for Sunday.

If you have played since Saturday, or will be playing this week, don't forget to vote in the player poll.

And what's happening with Monday night.

And at least one player please comment on the result at least.

On Eye-Catcher, the Premier League bubble, and continued monitoring of Liverpool's financial situation.

Reminder - If you want to play, the Routine Schedule page is a good place to start.

On Weekly Round-Up, 74 places filled on the equivalent of 8 pitches between the previous Saturday and last Thursday.

On Seven Days, the top leagues in England, Scotland and Portugal kick off over the weekend, and Usain Bolt.
